AGE 61

OCCUPATION Homemaker

For over three decades, Teri Barker Rhodes has dedicated her life to strengthening our community, supporting local families, and advocating for world-class public education.

Proven Leadership

Since 2013, Teri has proudly represented District #7 on the Cache County Board of Education, serving as Board President for the past five years. She focuses on high-quality public education, responsible budget management, and student-first policies.

Deep Roots

Teri's passion for our schools began in 1994 as a classroom volunteer. An alumna of Sky View High School and Utah State University (B.S. in Mathematics), she brings an analytical approach to school governance. Her civic leadership includes decades with the Utah PTA, Boy Scouts of America, and USA Swimming.

Rancher & Family Woman

Teri is a local entrepreneur. Alongside her husband, Kevin, she manages Smiling T Ranch LLC in Newton. They raised five children within the Cache County School District, and now have seven grandchildren attending district schools.

Teri's Vision

"A community thrives best when its families are supported and its children are given the foundation to achieve their dreams."
